A documentary series on Netflix is under fire because one of its stars, negro Jerry Harris, was arrested and charged with the production of child porn. He was been accused of sending sexually explicit texts to underage teenage boys as well. His team denied the charges, saying they happened when he was a teenager. Yes, he was 19! What the bleep, that’s NOT an excuse. However, this is on the heels of the Cuties controversy. I mean seriously, in a sane society, Netflix would’ve been shut down and its executives jailed. But that’s probably antisemitic.

It took no time at all for the “Why is everyone obsessed with pedophilia?” crowd to bring their hooked noses into the conversation. They have now accused those who are disgusted at jew diddling of being obsessed. Literally no reasonable person is obsessed with kiddie porn. That’s the whole point: no one thought about this until jews and their negro footsoldiers were let loose on society to do what they please with our children. Remember, whatever they accuse you of doing, they’re doing themselves.

On a separate note, I have attached a thread about a white guy married to a negro woman and his wife's newfound love for woke critical race theory and how its destroying his family. He laments this fact, yet doesn't seem to realize the whole thing is his fault: you could've just bred with a white woman. This whole pity party fest would've been avoided thereby. Or, maybe he's a jew too.
